January 29, 1965 May 22, 1998

You showed me sadness, heartache and pain;
But only to show me I had much more to gain,
In your arms safe and sound you kept me;
You need not weep I've gotta better home you see,
My days on earth I will hold dear;
But his home I will shed not a tear,
So to all my loved ones, you knew me best;
To know that now I must lay to rest.

Obituary

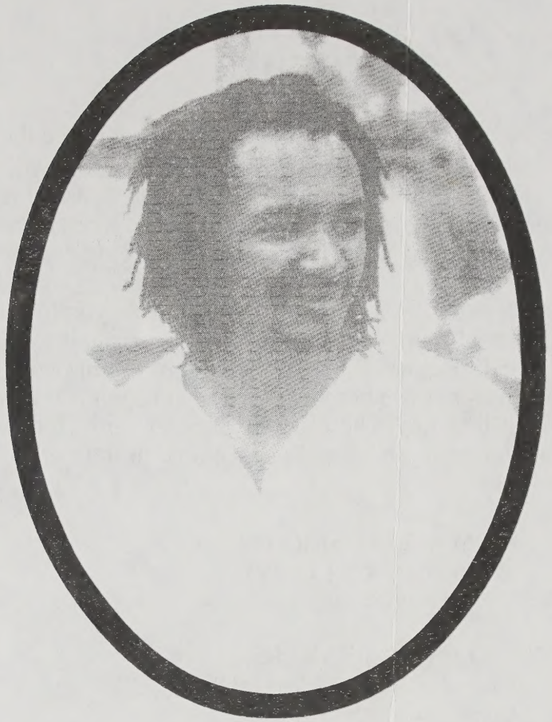
Like a beautiful, unique flower picked from a garden, Carl- our son, brother, and dear friend was picked from the garden of life on May 22, 1998.

Anthony Carl Daniels was born in Dougherty County on January 29, 1965 to Roosevelt and Lorene Daniels. He was educated in the Dougherty County public school system and graduated from Albany High School in the Class of '82. He continued his education at the Albany Technical Institute pursuing a career in Fashion Merchandising.

Introduced to Christ at a very early age, Carl joined Mount Calvary Baptist Church under the pastorship of Rev. Robert Elzia, Jr. His spiritual growth continued and he was a member of the Unity Fellowship Church of Christ, Atlanta, Georgia under the pastorship of Rev. Tony Jones.

Carl, as he was called by his family, "Tony" to a number of his friends, was known by many for his sense of style and flair in clothes, hair design, and interior design. Writing poetry and plays became a solace for him in times of trouble and sorrow. His poetry was also a means of expressing his concern and understanding for the pain of others. Because of his compassion for others, he made his family proud and along his life's journey he made many lifelong friends.

He leaves behind to carry this legacy of compassion and to cherish his memory; his loving and devoted parents, Roosevelt and Lorene Daniels of Albany, GA; three brothers, Freddy L. Daniels of Atlanta, GA; Bradford E. (Julie) Daniels of Fort Carson, CO; Michael Daniels of Albany, GA; four sisters, Hattie H. (Arthur) Johnson, Sandra D. Thompson and Alberta D. Hooks of Albany, GA; Elizabeth D. (Phillip) Arnold of Wilsonville, AL; four nieces, Erika T. Seay, Elysha B. Hooks and Endia D. Holt of Albany, GA; Brandi Daniels of Fort Carson, CO; four nephews, Michael A. Edwards, II and Daniel E. Nelson of Albany, GA; Bradford Daniels, Jr. of Fort Carson, CO; Caleb M. Arnold of Wilsonville, AL; two grandfathers, J. B. Perry of Pelham, GA; Charlie Daniels of Cordele, GA; one aunt, Allene Johnson of Miami, FL; one uncle, Charles Daniels of Cordele, GA; three great aunts; a number of cousins and many friends.



IN FIELDS OF COLOR

When at last I lay down,
And I am no more;
I can take with me,
The memory of a love I have.

When the ashes of my remains,
Are scattered to the four winds;
The news of this love I shared,
Will cover the land.

I will bloom in fields of purple,
Red, gold, and green;
Wild like the flower I am,
In full bloom

And I shall have lived,
And died and this love will live on.

~Karl

Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing forces of time. Be yourself.

Take kindly the counsels of years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nuture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be; and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul.
